

The advanced management of projects

Objectives

To provide advanced techniques, innovative methods and best practices for managing projects

Identify the organizational and behavioral tools to manage international and inter-groups projects.

Recipients

The seminar is for topics of interest to a wide number of professionals:

- Program and Project Managers
- Managers of information systems
- Responsible for the organization ..

Content

Recap of the fundamentals of Project Management: types, critical steps and tools.

The multi-project situation.

The multi-project management company.

The management of international projects.

Behavioral aspects:

- The assessment of group members and group evaluation
- The integration between project leader and functional heads
- The assessment objectives
- The processes of internationalization and trans-cultural features of the international project teams.

Project planning and control: Innovative approaches to project management and dynamic systems.

Risk management in projects management

- Methodologies
- Practical applications

The management and control of costs.

Quality assurance in the projects.

Groupware applications to manage projects.

Prerequisites

General knowledge and experience in Project Management.

Duration

3 days